June 2012

I hope you enjoy reading your copy of EXETER, the magazine for Exeter's community of alumni and friends.

Belonging to this family of graduates and supporters is one of the things that makes studying here so attractive and memorable, and makes me proud to be an Exeter student. I feel privileged to have the support of the Exeter community – the scholarship I receive has, quite simply, made my university education possible.

So, my thanks to those of you who have supported Exeter. No matter if you have volunteered your time, made gifts of money or provided a job opportunity – your contribution has had an impact and changed lives. If you're considering contributing, see below for the ways you too can get involved.

Thanks again, and happy reading!

Anna Riddiford, Sociology student, beneficiary of a Tony Allen Scholarship
