Employability and Graduate Development

(formerly the Careers and Employment Service)

Stands on 3 and 4 November 2010

Reed Mews
Streatham Drive
(Opposite the Student Health Centre)

Telephone: 01392 724493

Email: careers@exeter.ac.uk

Website: www.exeter.ac.uk/employability

If you need careers advice or information, we can offer you the following:

- All students and graduates are welcome to use the Information Room, including computers and reference books, at any time of the year. Loan copies of some of our books are available.
- Appointments with a Careers Adviser can be booked with the Employability and Graduate Development Division, Reed Mews, in person or by phone on 01392 724493.
- If you are a graduate and would like to speak to a Careers Adviser by phone, it is best to ring in advance and we will give you a suitable date and time to ring back.
- We run events and skills sessions for all current students. For details go to www.exeter.ac.uk/employability/events, or see our Careers and Employability student eNewsletter or campus-wide advertising.
- Our website is www.exeter.ac.uk/employability and is invaluable for all areas of careers research, with links to employers, organisations and information sources. It includes our jobsurfing database and an online CV creator.

Open Monday-Friday 9am – 5pm (except for Wednesdays when we are open from 10-5pm and on bank holidays, when we are closed). N.B. Occasionally we have to close unexpectedly, so if you are travelling some distance it is advisable to phone in advance to check if we are open.

Graduate Business Partnerships

Stands on 3 and 4 November 2010

Employability and Graduate Development
(formerly the Careers and Employment Service)
Room K6
Kay Building
North Park Road
Exeter
Devon EX4 4QF

Contact: Jane Gill, Employer Liaison Officer
(Business Projects)

Telephone: 01392 723844

Email: studentprojects@exeter.ac.uk

Website: www.exeter.ac.uk/businessprojects/gbp

Graduates from all disciplines are able to undertake practical, paid, work experience being responsible for specific projects to benefit their host organisations in Devon and Somerset.

Placements vary in length from 8 – 12 week placements for Graduate Internships to the longer 20 week Graduate Business Partnership placements. Graduates successfully placed on shorter placements are paid £210 a week – free of tax and NI. Whereas graduates on the longer Graduate Business Partnership scheme are paid a minimum of £300 a week, which is subject to tax and NI deductions.

All placements benefit from a Placement Support Day and Final Celebration Event. Graduates on the longer GBP placements benefit from attending a Business Training Course which is designed to assist in their personal development and their work based projects. Placements are often extended beyond the initial period and can lead to permanent employment.

Jobsurfing

Stands on 3 and 4 November 2010

Website: www.exeter.ac.uk/employability/jobsurfgrad

Every year the Employability and Graduate Development Division (formerly the Careers and Employment Service), gets sent hundreds of vacancies from companies that want to hire Exeter graduates. These vacancies are all uploaded onto our Jobsurfing website. Finalists can find “milkround” vacancies, graduates can find immediate vacancies, and other students can find internships and placements. You can either browse the jobs as and when you want to or, you can register and set up an email alert that will notify you of jobs that match your preferences.
