

The Bible in The Bush

Translating and reading the Bible in Africa

7.30 pm

Monday 8th August 2016

Chapter House - Exeter Cathedral

Free Entry

Refreshments served afterwards

A conversation with

Professor Musa Dube, Ph.D

Musa Dube is Professor in the Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies at the University of Botswana. She is a member of the United Methodist Church, the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians, and the Society of Biblical Literature.

In 2011 she was awarded the Friedrich Wilhelm Bessel Research Award by the prestigious Humboldt Foundation (Germany) in recognition of both her academic and community oriented work on postcolonialism, HIV&AIDS and biblical studies.

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

UNIVERSITY OF EXETER