How we use personal information:

American International Group UK Limited is committed to protecting the privacy of customers, claimants and other business contacts.

“Personal Information” identifies and relates to you or other individuals (e.g. your partner or other members of your family). If you provide Personal Information about another individual, you must (unless we agree otherwise) inform the individual about the content of this notice and our Privacy Policy and obtain their permission (where possible) for sharing of their Personal Information with us.

The types of Personal Information we may collect and why – Depending on our relationship with you, Personal Information collected may include: contact information, financial information and account details, credit reference and scoring information, sensitive information about health or medical conditions (collected with your consent where required by applicable law) as well as other Personal Information provided by you or that we obtain in connection with our relationship with you. Personal Information may be used for the following purposes:

- Insurance administration, e.g. communications, claims processing and payment
- Make assessments and decisions about the provision and terms of insurance and settlement of claims
- Assistance and advice on medical and travel matters
- Management of our business operations and IT infrastructure
- Prevention, detection and investigation of crime, e.g. fraud and money laundering
- Establishment and defence of legal rights
- Legal and regulatory compliance (including compliance with laws and regulations outside your country of residence)
- Monitoring and recording of telephone calls for quality, training and security purposes
- Marketing, market research and analysis

Sharing of Personal Information – For the above purposes Personal Information may be shared with our group companies and third parties (such as brokers and other insurance distribution parties, insurers and re-insurers, credit reference agencies, healthcare professionals and other service providers). Personal Information will be shared with other third parties (including government authorities) if required by laws or regulations. Personal Information (including details of injuries) may be recorded on claims registers shared with other insurers. We are required to register all third party claims for compensation relating to bodily injury to workers' compensation boards. We may search these registers to prevent, detect and investigate fraud or to validate your claims history or that of any other person or property likely to be involved in the policy or claim. Personal Information may be shared with prospective purchasers and purchasers, and transferred upon a sale of our company or transfer of business assets.

International transfer – Due to the global nature of our business, Personal Information may be transferred to parties located in other countries (including the United States, China, Mexico Malaysia, Philippines, Bermuda and other countries which may have a data protection regime which is different to that in your country of residence). When making these transfers, we will take steps to ensure that your Personal Information is adequately protected and transferred in accordance with the requirements of data protection law. Further information about international transfers is set out in our Privacy Policy (see below).

Security of Personal Information – Appropriate technical and physical security measures are used to keep your Personal Information safe and secure. When we provide Personal Information to a third party (including our service providers) or engage a third party to collect Personal Information on our behalf, the third party will be selected carefully and required to use appropriate security measures.

Your rights – You have a number of rights under data protection law in connection with our use of Personal Information. These rights may only apply in certain circumstances and are subject to certain exemptions. These rights may include a right to access Personal Information, a right to correct inaccurate data, a right to erase data or suspend our use of data. These rights may also include a right to transfer your data to another organisation, a right to object to our use of your Personal Information, a right to request that certain automated decisions we make have human involvement, a right to withdraw consent and a right to complain to the data protection regulator. Further information about your rights and how you may exercise them is set out in full in our Privacy Policy (see below).

Privacy Policy – More details about your rights and how we collect, use and disclose your Personal Information can be found in our full Privacy Policy at <https://www.aig.co.uk/privacy-policy> or you may request a copy by writing to: Data Protection Officer, American International Group UK Limited, The AIG Building, 58 Fenchurch Street, London EC3M 4AB. or by email at: dataprotectionofficer.uk@aig.com.

Declaration:

We declare that the information provided is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that a false declaration may invalidate my claim and could result in prosecution.

I give permission for my personal information to be used and shared in the ways described above. I confirm that I will not provide any personal information about another person without that person's permission.

Access to medical records/medical reports:

Access to Medical Reports Act (1988), Access to Medical Records Act (1988)/Access to Personal Files and Medical Reports (Northern Ireland) Order 1991/Access to Health Records and Reports Act 1993 (Isle of Man), Data Protection Act (1988) ("The Acts").

To enable American International Group UK Limited to assess your claim, it may be necessary to obtain medical evidence. Any reports which are requested from your doctors are subject to The Acts. (Please note that Reports requested from Doctors appointed by American International Group UK Limited are not subject to The Acts). In summary your statutory rights are as follows. A Medical Report cannot be requested from any doctor who has attended you, without your written authority. You do not have to give your consent. If you do consent, you can say whether you wish to see the report before it is supplied. If you do not give consent we may be unable to proceed with your claim. If you say you wish to see the report, we will write to your doctor and tell them, and advise you that we have done so. You will then have 21 days from the date of notification to contact the doctor to make arrangements for you to see the report. The medical practitioner will be informed that you wish to have access to the report and will allow 21 days from the date of the notification for you to see and approve it before it is supplied to us. If the medical practitioner has not heard from you in writing within 21 days of the application for the report being made he/she will assume that you do not wish to see the report and that you consent to it being supplied. If you say that you do not wish to see the report, we do not have to notify you if we apply for one. Whether or not you say you wish to see the report before it is sent to us, you may ask your doctor to show you a copy of the report for up to 6 months after it is supplied. The practitioner may charge a reasonable fee for the cost of supplying a report not exceeding £50. If you see a report before it is sent to us, the doctor cannot submit it until you give your consent. You can write to the doctor, asking that any part of the report which you consider to be incorrect or misleading be amended and to have attached to the report a statement of your views on any part where you and the doctor are not in agreement.

The doctor is not obliged to let you see any part of a report if:

- in his/her opinion it would be likely to cause serious harm to your physical or mental health, or that of others.
- it would indicate the doctor's intentions towards you.

Disclosure would be likely to reveal information relating to, or the identity of, someone else that has supplied information about you, unless that person has consented.

Please confirm the full name and postal address of your doctor (GP) and Specialist:
