London conference for teachers and advisers

Thursday 21 November 2024, 15:00-18:00

The Derby (Kings Cross St Pancras)

This free event is aimed at education and careers professionals who support students with their options after 6th form or college.

We'll provide key insights and updates about a range of current topics, plus you'll learn what's on offer from a leading Russell Group University outside of London. You'll also have the chance to put your questions to University staff, students and partners.

Agenda

- Keynote speech: Higher education admissions update – Dr Katherine Lloyd-Clarke, Associate Director, Student Access, Recruitment and Admissions, University of Exeter
- Preparing students for the workforce – University of Exeter Student Employability and Academic Success (SEAS) team
- Overview of degree apprenticeships – University of Exeter School and College Engagement Team
- Success for All – Nicola Sinclair, Head of Access, Participation and Outreach / Director (Practice) Centre for Social Mobility, University of Exeter
- Panel Q&A with University of Exeter students and alumni
