

Annex A: Summary of Student Visitor Schemes

	Erasmus+ Exchange Student	International Exchange Student	Study Abroad Student	European independent student	International Summer School Programme
Reciprocal agreement with home institution	Yes (Erasmus+)	Yes	Possibly	No	Yes*
Registered as an Exeter student	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
Fees charged	None	None	Yes	Yes	None*

Information relating to University wide supported schemes

Please note the PGR Admissions team are unable to offer support or advice relating to the schemes below, therefore please use the contact information provided below.

Erasmus+ Exchange Student (UG/PGT – credit-mobility*) A student who is studying at one of the University’s partner institutions, governed by an Erasmus+ Agreement, from a country participating in the Erasmus+ scheme. An Erasmus+ Exchange Student is accepted by means of a reciprocal exchange agreement, and subject to the exchange quotas as agreed in the Erasmus+ Agreement, is not required to pay the Tuition Fees at the host institution. A credit mobility student will study modules at UoE*.

A list of the partners can be found via our Go Abroad pages.

Student applications or queries to this scheme should contact the Global Opportunities Inbound Team at inbound@exeter.ac.uk

Exchange Student (UG/PGT) – credit-mobility: A student who is studying at one of the University’s partner institutions, governed by a Student Exchange Agreement outside of the Erasmus+ scheme. An Exchange Student is accepted by means of a reciprocal exchange agreement and subject to the exchange quotas as agreed in the Student Exchange Agreement, is not required to pay the Tuition Fee at the host institution. A credit mobility student will study modules at UoE*.

Details of this scheme can be found on our Study Abroad pages.

For additional information please contact the Global Opportunities Inbound Team at inbound@exeter.ac.uk

Study Abroad Student (UG only) credit-mobility: A student who is studying at an institution abroad where there is no formal reciprocal exchange agreement in place with the University via the schemes above. A Study Abroad Student can be accepted as an independent student (in the case of no agreement) and will usually study at undergraduate and postgraduate taught level. A Study Abroad Student will be liable for the University's Tuition Fee according to the University's Fee Classification programme of study and duration of visit.

Details of this scheme can be found on our Tuition Fees and Scholarships pages.

For additional information please contact the Global Opportunities Inbound Team at inbound@exeter.ac.uk

International Summer School Programme (UG only): A student who is studying at another institution who has been accepted on to one of the University's recognised Summer School programmes. A student may be accepted on to a Summer School Programme either through a formal agreement between the University and the student's home institution or as an independent student. The fee payable will depend on the individual Summer School programme; and where there is a formal agreement in place as set out in the terms and conditions of the agreement.

Details of this scheme can be found on our International Summer School page.

For additional information please contact iss@exeter.ac.uk